

Competing Futures: From Rupture to Rearticulation - CBEES Annual Conference

PROGRAMME: Thursday 30 November 2017

9.00-9.30	REGISTRATION – MB 5 (outside MB 505/MB 503)
9.30-9.45	WELCOME by the Vice-Chancellor of Södertörn University, Gustav Amberg and the director of CBEES, Joakim Ekman – MB 503
9.45-10.45	KEYNOTE LECTURE by Vlad Strukov (University of Leeds) – MB 503
11.00-12.30	1A: IDENTITY AND COMMUNITY BEYOND THE NATION MB 503 Chair: Helene Carlbäck Sigrid Kaasik-Krogerus: Constructing European identity: Heritage as geopolitical discourse Minna Lundgren: Historical homecomings and ideas of the nation in post-war Abkhazia Kazimierz Musial: The role of academic expertise in periods of uncertainty in the Baltic Sea Region David Hallbeck: Under Western eyes: The interpretation of community searching movements and ideologies in Russia	1B: RESPONSIVE GOVERNMENT, CRITICAL CITIZENS AND POLITICAL SUPPORT IN EASTERN EUROPE MB 505 Chair: Miroslav Nemcok Dmytro Volodin: Deliberative democracy and political trust at the local level: The case of participatory budgeting in Ukraine Ivana Damnjanovic: Democratic innovations in Serbia: Misplaced trust in technology Stoycho P. Stoychev: Reforming electoral systems through direct democract tools: The 2016 referendum in Bulgaria	1C: MEDIA AND REPRESENTATION Room MA 432 Chair: Maria Brock Alina Zubkovych: The transformation of national identity narratives: media and visual politics of representation of Crimean Tatars in Ukraine Liudmila Voronova: Re-articulating journalistic standards in the times of crisis: Ukrainian journalism organizations in the discussion of objectivity and patriotism Kateryna Zorya: Monitoring hate: How analyzing hate crime in Ukraine helps combat fake news	1D: ROUNDTABLE: ANTIGYPSYISM – NEW DILEMMAS AND CHALLENGES – MA 796 Moderator: Kimmo Granqvist Participants: Vasile Ionescu, Hristo Kyuchukov PANEL: MOVING EUROPEAN PERIPHERIES AND THE ROMA: PLACES, RELATIONS, BORDERS Julieta Rotaru and Kimmo Granqvist: A quest for working relationships: A reinterpretation of the historical Romani migration to North of Danube Catherine Lavenir: Migration, mobility and attendance at school in contemporary France
12.30-13.30	LUNCH for presenters and chairs – restaurant Allé Elva, located under the Södertörn University Library

13.30-15.00	2A: MOVING EUROPEAN PERIPHERIES AND THE ROMA: PLACES, RELATIONS, BORDERS (cont.) MA 796 Chair: Anca Enache and Miika Tervonen Carmen Gheorghe: Roma women: feminization of poverty in the context of EU mobility Giovanni Picker: Racial cities: Governance and the segregation of Romani people in urban Europe Markus Himanen: Controlling Precarity: Bulgarian and Romanian Street Workers' Experiences of Mistreatment and Ethnic Profiling by the Police and Security Guards in Helsinki Marko Stenroos: Migration as a challenge to a national Roma strategy? Miika Tervonen and Anca Enache: Coping with everyday bordering; Roma migrants and gatekeepers in Helsinki	2B: CRISIS, AUSTERITY AND THE RISE OF POPULISM: OPPORTUNITIES OR OBSTACLES FOR RADICAL LEFT-LIBERTARIAN MOVEMENTS IN THE BALTIC REGION AND EASTERN EUROPE MB 503 Chair: Jenny Gunnarsson Payne Christian Fröhlich: Swimming against the stream: Radical left-libertarian activism in Russia 2000-2015 Jan Jämte: A withering storm? The development of the Danish radical left-libertarian movement 2000-2015 Måns Lundstedt and Magnus Wennerhag: Tackling the crisis: Radical left-libertarian activism in Germany 2000-2015 Grzegorz Piotrowski: Radical left-libertarian activism in Poland	2C: STATUS QUO FOREVER: BELARUS AND THE "DISAPPEARANCE OF POLITICS" MB 505 Chair: Matthew Cott Sofie Bedford: "The election game": Authoritarian consolidation processes in Belarus Maryia Rohava: Belarusians talk politics: Interpreting salience of political topics in people's lives Alesia Rudnik: Permissible advocacy: political and non-political campaigning in Belarus Laurent Vinatier: Sustainable vs. democratic: Perspectives on political strategies in authoritarian regimes Discussant: Ales Michalevich
15.00-15.30	COFFEE BREAK – MB 5
15.30-16.45	ROUNDTABLE: Threats to academic freedom in Central and Eastern Europe – MB 503 Moderator: Teresa Kulawik (Södertörn University) Participants: Alexander Kondakov (European University, Saint Petersburg), Balazs Trencsenyi (Central European University, Budapest), Elzbieta Korolczuk (Södertörn University and University of Warsaw)
17.00-18.00	PLENARY SPEECH: Anna Westerholm, Ambassador of Sweden for the Eastern Partnership - MB 503
18.00-20.00	EVENING RECEPTION sponsored by the Foundation for Baltic and East European Studies – MB 5

Friday 1 December 2017

9.00-10.30	3A: QUEER POLITICS IN RUSSIA MB 503 Chair: Oscar von Seth Altynay Kambekova: Whose imagined community is it? The exclusion of LGBTQI+ people from the national narratives in Russia Alexander Kondakov: Crip alliances: A political strategy of queer populations in Russia Maria Brock and Emil Edenborg: "You cannot repress those who do not exist": Gay persecution in Chechnya and the politics of in/visibility Matilda Tudor: Desire lines: Queering movements in media-space	3B: RIGHT-WING POPULISM IN EUROPE MB 505 Chair: Alina Zubkovich Monika Gabriela Bartoszewicz and Katarzyna Dabrowska: Love hate relationship: A phenomenological analysis of contemporary populism Anton Shekhovtsov: Voicing the exit: The populist radical right as alternative mainstream Vyacheslav Likachev: Right-wing radicals in Ukraine: On the rise or on the threshold of a crisis?	3C: HOW CITIZENS ALTER THE STATUS QUO: DIRECT DEMOCRACY IN CENTRAL AND EASTERN EUROPE MA 796 Chair: Nanuli Silagadze Zoltan Tibor Pallinger: Direct democracy in an increasingly illiberal setting: The case of Hungary Miroslav Nemcok: Partisan cues and voters' mobilization in a referendum: Evidence from Slovakia Nanuli Silagadze: And Yet It Matters: Referendum Campaigns and Vote Decision in Eastern Europe
10.30-11.00	COFFEE BREAK – MB 5
11.00-12.00	KEYNOTE LECTURE by Agnieszka Graff (University of Warsaw) – MB 503
12.00-13.00	LUNCH for presenters and chairs – restaurant Allé Elva, located under the Södertörn University Library
13.00-14.45	4A: CITIZENS AND THE STATE: ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL PERSPECTIVES MB 503 Chair: Joakim Ekman Rares Popa: Romanian perspectives on the fight against corruption: The emergence of good governance as a	4B: PROTEST CULTURE AND POLITICAL CHANGE MB 505 Chair: Yulia Gradskova Srdjan Atanasovski: The critique of populism will not be televised: Performative events and affective communities in Belgrade April 2017	4C: MODES AND PRACTICES OF MEMORY MA 796 Chair: Florence Fröhlich Alla Marchenko: Contemporary pilgrimage as tool for dealing with memory: Implications for Ukraine Yuliya Yurchuk: When history becomes a weapon: historians' response to

base for changing societal identification Tobias Spöri: From bad to worse? Individual economic success since 1989 and its impact on political participation Elena Berdysheva: Political and cultural history of monetary prices and institutional logics of their interpretation by consumers in a recessionary market economy: The case of Russia Jelena Vasiljevic: Citizenship and solidarity in the post-Yugoslav states Filip Milacic: Statehood issues and democratic consolidation: Ex-Yugoslavia lessons for Ukraine	protests Ilkin Mehrabov: When (left-wing) populist attempts fail: The case of the (post-Gezi) United Movement in Turkey Alena Minchenia: Frozen in time and bound to fail? Imagining political changes in Belarus Klaudia Hanisch: Partisan Polarization and its impact on protest culture in Poland Elzbieta Korolczuk: Opposition against gender equality as a conservative response to neoliberalism: The case of parental movements in Central and Eastern Europe	information war in Ukraine Emilia Pawlusz: Ethno-nationalism revisited? A journey through the new Estonian National Museum (Eesti Rahva Muuseum) Sylvia Stancheva: Museums in Bulgaria: The paradox of the status quo Lia Brad Chisacof: Dissimulation, Hypocrisy, Hidden Sorrow and Joy - the Massive Emigration of the Greeks from the Romanian Territories after 1821. The Romanian and Greek Discourses Future-Oriented
14.45-15.15 COFFEE BREAK – MB 5
15.15-16.45 5A: Foreign policies and inter-state relations in the European Union MB 503 Chair: Emil Edenborg Oleksandr Moskalenko: The European Parliament in the EU external relations: Claiming and gaining Zsolt Kapelner: Non-compliance and transnational democracy: The case of illiberalism in the EU Jan Mus: The Three Seas project as PiS alternative to neo-liberal hegemony	5B: Soviet femininities and masculinities MB 505 Chair: Tora Lane Nadezda Petrusenko: Constructing revolutionary heroines: Representations of the female terrorists of the PSR in early Soviet Russia Helene Carlbäck: What makes a good father? Ideals and practices in late socialist Russia Yulia Gradskova: The Soviet emancipation of the "Woman of the Orient" in the post-Soviet present: Appropriations, challenges and critique	5C: Environment and sustainable development MA 796 Chair: Michael Gilek Martin Kerntopf and Alexander Drost: The (political) story of "protecting nature": Environmental policies and regional identity in the relations between the Nordic Council and the Baltic Assembly Anastas Dzurovski: Public participation in the environmental policy development and enacting: The case of Macedonia Ralph Tafon: Exploring power in Estonia's offshore wind energy/marine spatial planning social relations
16.45-19.00 CLOSING RECEPTION for presenters and chairs – MB 5			